I see matchless charms in Jesus. I never talk of any trials I cannot bear.
or any self-sacrifice that I cannot make.
I see One who died in my behalf.
and He shall not die for me in vain.
I will place myself in right relation to God.
and I will have a right hold from above.
I am not studying what the world will say of me,
but my study is, "Lord, how shall I please Thee?
How shall I perform my mission in this world?
How shall I save the precious souls around me?"

MYSTERIES OF THE SUN
- a new release!!!

Get your copy today!!!
It’s serious!!

In Professor Veith’s latest release all forms of sunworship from ancient times to present times are exposed. Sunworship ideology forms the basis for the coming of the New Age Cosmic Christ and is the common thread that binds all religious systems together in a world confederation.

Sunworship is the system of universal values propagated by UNESCO, the UN cultural arm, which seeks to unite all peoples in the acceptance of one universal system of worship incorporating all the religious systems of the world. Professor Veith discusses these trends and compares them to the Biblical exposition of the union of the systems which are to comprise the great Babylon which according to the book of Revelation stands in opposition to God’s revealed will.

In addition, the origin of Christmas is discussed in further detail, in particular its relation to sunworship, as well as the infiltration of sunworship in other aspects of our present day, such as computers, business, sports, festivals, and more. If we look at the world today, there is nothing that is not dedicated to the sun-god. Take for example, UNESCO’s description of sports in The Sun in Myth and Art, p. 87, 88. “Polo was known to the Persians and restored to its original “sun-game” significance by Akbar. Scoring a goal with the sun ball was equated with the triumph of light over darkness, good over evil... The ball is a sun symbol in all such sports as football, hockey, basketball and cricket. [If you look at the soccer ball, the patterns imitate the original ball covered in pentagrams, hexagrams and triangles]. Baseball is related to the sun in the sundial shape and pattern of the field, as well as its rules of play and scoring. [Baseball has 9 innings - if you saw the videos The New World Order and The New World Order Rises you will recognize the significance.] Like all sports, baseball also embodies the sun’s seasonal cycles in much the same way as ancient ceremonial contests were held at part of fertility rites.”

Volunteers Needed!!!
If you would like to help God’s work go forward in a personal way.

If you have a strong desire to tell others the good news of the Advent message and want to know you have done something to help the work go forward...
You may be able to help us...

Amazing Discoveries has a number of projects that we would like to see materialize, but our time and staff are limited. If you would like to help in the following areas on a volunteer basis, your help would be greatly needed and appreciated.

Proofreader - if spelling, grammar, and sentence structure of the English language is one of your strong points, and/or if you have a background in teaching, we desperately need your help - One of our projects is to revise Truth Matters by spring 2001 and Genesis Conflict by 2002. Access to email and/or fax is preferred.

Website Manager - if you have experience in the field of web management and design, we may have work for you!!! Please call our office.

Office Assistant - if you live in the Vancouver area, have your own transportation, and have some free time, we sure could use your help at the office. References are required.

Native Spanish-speaking male voice - Colombian accent preferred (but not necessary) - if you fit into this category - then we REALLY need you!!! We are praying for the opportunity to translate Professor Veith’s videos into Spanish so that this language group can also be reached with the three angels’ messages presented in Dr. Veith’s unique series. If you think you could help, please call.

If you think you may be able to help us in any of these areas, or know someone else who may, please call the office at: 604-572-9457. Thank you.

Dearest Dr. Veith,

If you have any seminars in Kansas or Oklahoma area we would feel honored to attend. We have experienced spiritual revival and the Lord has blessed us greatly through your prophesy series. ...Your videos are like going back to college again, but this time the subject is eternal life. We need to wake up! I would love to share your videos with my family. May God continue to bless you and your family!
THE DUTY OF FORGIVENESS
by Ellen G. White

"Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors." Matt 6:12

It is most difficult, even for those who claim to be followers of Jesus, to forgive as Christ forgives us. The true spirit of forgiveness is so little practiced, and so many interpretations are placed upon Christ's requirement, that its force and beauty are lost sight of. We have very uncertain views of the great mercy and loving kindness of God.

He is full of compassion and forgiveness and freely pardons when we truly repent and confess our sins. But when the message of God's pardoning love comes from a heart that has an experimental knowledge thereof, to those who have not experienced it for themselves it is like speaking in parables. We must bring into our characters the love and sympathy expressed in Christ's life.

Peter, when brought to the test, sinned greatly. In denying the Master he had loved and served, he became a cowardly apostate. But His Lord did not cast him off. He freely forgave him. After the resurrection, the angel told the women who had brought spices to the tomb, to carry the glad news of a risen Lord to the "disciples and Peter". And when afterward Christ thrice repeated the question, "Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me?" John 21:17

Peter cast himself upon the tender mercy of the Master he had so wronged and said, "Lord, thou knowest all things, thou knowest that I love thee." And when the Lord entrusted to him the care of the sheep and lambs of the heavenly fold, Peter knew that he was taken back into divine confidence and affection. To fulfill this charge, he would need to have that mind which was in Jesus Christ (Phil 2:5); and if he was converted, he would copy the pattern. Henceforth, remembering his own weakness and failures, he would be patient with his brethren in their mistakes and errors, remembering the patient love of Christ toward him, affording him another opportunity to bring forth the fruit of good works, he would be more conciliatory toward erring ones.

If we have received the gift of God, and have a knowledge of Jesus Christ, we have work to do for others. We must initiate the long suffering of God towards us. The Lord requires us the same treatment toward His followers that we receive of Him. We are to exercise patience, to be kind,

CATHOLICISM ONLY TRUE CHRISTIAN FAITH, VATICAN

The Vatican has recently rejected the concept that other religions could be equal to Roman Catholicism and ordered its theologians not to manipulate what is called the truth of the faith.

In position was outlined in a complex theological document titled "On the Unity and Salvific Universality of Jesus Christ and the Church." The document repeated church teachings that non-Christians were in a "gravely deficient situation" regarding salvation and other Christian churches had "defects", partly because they did not recognize the primacy of the Pope.

The 36-page document, which is bound to spark debate, was prepared by the Vatican's Congregation of the Doctrine of the Faith and approved by Pope John Paul earlier this year.

It said the clarification and re-statement of the official Catholic position was necessary to contest "relativistic theories which seek to justify religious pluralism. Asserting Christian revelation could be complementary to that found in other religions was "contrary to the Church's faith."

At a news conference to present the document, Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger, the Vatican's doctrinal head, said some theologians were "manipulating and going beyond the limits" of tolerance when they put all religions on the same plane. But this did not reflect what he called "an objective and universal truth."

AMAZING DISCOVERIES UPDATE

Amazing Discoveries in Saulst Ste. Marie, Ontario
September 5-7, 2000:

The attractive young woman with shining eyes and a big smile, sitting in the middle aisle on the carpet with a friend, jumped up and waved both her hands in the air. The question had just been asked: "How many are glad that Dr. Veith has come to Saulst Ste. Marie to share this information with you?" The hands shot up, but this young woman could not sit still. She had to jump up and share her joy.

The hall that seated 230 comfortably was now holding 275+. There were people standing along the walls, sitting on the carpets, an odd smell splaying out the doors and listening from the adjoining lobby.

Dr. Walter Veith had come to Saulst Ste. Marie, Ontario, and the community came out to hear the scientist who had converted from evolutionist to creationist. And the crowd loved him...young, old, and in between.

The excited young woman had been taught a few years ago in her university ecology course that evolution holds the only explanation to this planet's origins. Being a Christian, she filed the evolution theory away in her mind. But, time and again, the "file" would pop open and she'd push it closed again. Now, through the Amazing Discoveries Seminar she could forever clear the files.

Dr. Veith spoke three nights in a raw September 1-4, at this hall, and the room was consistently overflowing. The people came to listen, and they were not disappointed. He taught them, acknowledging the Bible as the true story of our beginning, and Jesus, as the hope for all our tomorrows.

The 'other angel' was surely there, when on the last evening, the series concluded with God's memorial of creation and redemption - the Sabbath. No one, including the six or seven pastors from other denominations left the hall. Finally, 241 requests for seminars on nutrition, Bible prophecy and Bible history were handed in.

The church members in Saulst Ste. Marie are overwhelmed, and plans are in place to run these excellent seminars on video by Dr. Veith, beginning in the last week of September.

Never before has the community responded like this! We praise God, and we thank Dr. Veith for his dedicated and loving ministry!

Amazing Discoveries in Bellingham, WA:

On September 8th & 10th, 2000 the Bellingham SDA church had the privilege of hosting Amazing Discoveries & Dr. Walter Veith. The evening meetings were attended by approximately 350 people. Many visitors from other nearby SDA churches and a significant number of people who were not members of the SDA church. The number of community members would have been significantly higher had there not been the unanticipated oversight by the mailing service of not mailing the specially printed tracks to the community.

The evening meetings were on Creation vs. Evolution issues Friday through Sunday. A bonus session was presented Monday evening on the topic of Sun and Sunday worship. This was a real shocker to many people and some are still wondering how to take it. Reaction from most of the visitors who are not SDA was very positive. One said "every youth in America needs to see this." Among SDA some wondered if this went too far, was over imagining the extensiveness of paganism, especially into the corporate world or imagining communication with commonly used "hand gestures and eye gestures and the influences of Jesus and exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven." (Matt 5:20)

"Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill."

For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one title shall in no wise pass from the law till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven." (Matt 5:17-19)

Christ continues to impress upon His disciples the necessity of practicing the principles of the commandments. He tells them that the seventh commandment may be violated by the eyes and thoughts; therefore the principles of God's law reach even to the intents and purposes of the mind. The Saviour seeks to impress upon His followers that merely believing the commandments is not enough; they must do them. He sets forth plain evidence that if we faithfully keep the ten precepts we shall love our neighbour as ourselves. "Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven; for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? Do not even the publicans do so? Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect." (Matt 5:43-48)

"Verily, Verily I say unto you, He that believeth on me the works which I do shall he also do, and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. And whatsoever I shall ask of my Father, He will give it me in your behalf." (John 14:12-15) "If a man love me, he will keep my words, and my Father will love him and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me." (John 14:23,24) A new commandment I give unto you that ye love one another as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another." (John 13:34,35)

All the lessons and works of Christ were to show the elevated character of the law of His Father. If we have any just comprehension of the love wherewith He hath loved us, we will see that we come far short of doing His words. We claim to have special light in regard to the binding claims of God's law upon the whole human family, and we profess to be walking in that light. Let us critically examine ourselves, to see if we are living in obedience to the words of our Master in which He plainly points out the duty of His followers to their enemies as well as to their brethren.

Nothing short of unreserved consecration to God will place us in such a relation to Him that we will rightfully perform every daily duty and cultivate a piety so thorough that our lives must be felt by all in the circle of our influence. We must guard ourselves against a love of self that will lead us to neglect to render obedience to the important instructions Christ has given. These lessons should be so impressed upon our minds that we will consider how our words and actions appear to those who behold them. We should studiously cultivate Christian courtesy at all times, which will keep us from neglecting that which is due to others. We must study the example Christ has left us, as revealed in His character and then, all unconsciously to ourselves, we shall do the works He did. By reflecting upon those around us, by the rays of light we thus receive, we may bring to a saving knowledge of Him those who know Him not. If all who claim to believe the truth would practice the lessons of Jesus to love our neighbour as ourselves, there would be a forward, upward movement all along the line. We are to love souls for whom the Saviour died, with the pure unsullied love He manifested when He became our sacrifice.

Let heads of families look into their home life. Is this love exemplified in the family circle? Go farther in your self-examination: in your association with your brethren in church capacity, do you find unkindness, selfishness, or even dishonesty? Do you esteem yourself superior to others? Do you prove yourselves as John Paul has directed: "Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith: prove your own selves." (2 Cor 13:5) In the light of God's word, search carefully whether you truly have the love of God in the heart. "This is my commandment, That ye love one another as I have loved you." (John 14:12) "He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now." (1 John 2:9) The time has come to be brought to bear upon our lives. It will have a softening, subduing influence upon our hearts and characters. It will prompt us to forgive our brethren, even though they have done us injustice. Divine love must flow from our hearts in gentle words and kindly actions to one another. The fruit of these good works will hang as rich clusters upon the vine of character. "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance." (Gal 5:22-23)

Long suffering is patience with offence - long endurance. If you are long-suffering, you will not impart to others your supposed knowledge of your brother's mistakes and errors. You will seek to help and save him, because he has been purchased with the blood of Christ. "Tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee thou hast gained thy brother." (Matt 18:15) "Brother, if a man be taken in a fault, ye which are spiritual should restore him, such one in the spirit of meekness considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted." (Gal 6:1) To be long-suffering is not to be gloomy and sad, sour and heart-hardened, it is to be exactly the opposite.

There are church members who never feel sweet peace and rest in Jesus. They have made no growth in grace, they manifest no increase in meekness and love. An impatient, fault-finding, critical, envious, suspicious spirit classes them as yet among those under the influence of the adversary of souls. If they would let the spirit of their Saviour come in, in their cold hard hearts would be melted, and the merciful love of Jesus would be communicated to others instead of this worrying, exacting spirit. Christ's followers are in this world for the purpose of working intelligently to pluck brands from the burning. A consistent religious life, holy conversation, a godly example, true-hearted benevolence, mark the representative of Christ. Every duty will be faithfully performed thus becoming a beacon light.

Have you an unwavering trust in God? Lacking self-confidence, do you put your faith in Him, rejoicing that you are privileged to be His child, even to suffer for His dear sake? Rejoicing in Christ as your Saviour, pitiful, compassionate and tenderhearted, you are a salt of the earth, and joy will be revealed in your daily life. If you love Him who died to redeem mankind, you will love those for whom He died. A restful peace and happiness will fill your heart to overflowing when you believe that Jesus carries you and all your burdens.

Brethren, we are nearing the Judgment. Talents have been lent us in trust. Let none of us be at last condemned as having been loaves of which God has said, 'Send ye forth to them, that they may eat and be satisfied; but leave none of them for hire.' Let the church be true to her trust. Her earnest, humble prayers will make the presentation of true effectual, and Christ will be glorified. (RH Vol 2 p, 93 Nov 16, 1886)

ASK PROFESSOR VEITH

If there’s a God, who made God?

Science has the same problem. If you have a big bang, who made the pinpoint or golf ball where it all started from? You have to apply different criteria. We have both, science & religion, come to the same point where there is no answer as to where that came from. What evidence is supplied by either party to convince of the truth of the original statements? That’s where a document like the Bible comes in. This book has been maligned, banded, ostracized, ridiculed. Yet every single time it comes up trumps. If we are talking historical facts, archaeology has in the last 100 years dug up so much information authenticating the story of the Hittites, Egyptians, the Exodus - so much evidence that the Word which was ridiculed was actually accurate. In the prophetic sense, the ancient prophecies regarding Nineveh, Babylon, Tyre, etc. have accurately been fulfilled. That gives one confidence for the prophecies pertaining to the future as well. What has evolution really contributed in terms of confidence as to its plans? Nothing. Originally it was the Darwinian idea that we slowly evolved from one lifeform to another, yet the concept of millions and millions of years cannot be substantiated and which today are being chopped left, right, and center. The idea of going from simple to complex is not tenable because we don’t see evolutionary trees, we see evolutionary laws - everything is there at the same time. The theory is constantly having to change and adapt to meet the challenges, whereas the Bible is vindicated time and time again. The more it is vindicated, the less people want to believe it. It’s a strange anomaly.

What kind of evidence does science provide for the Biblical theory?

There is a lot of evidence of catastrophism. In fact most of the fossil record are examples of water demise - the giant dinosaurs all washed into position, stream orientation in the fossil record (petrified forests of the world, even the upright floating trees). If everything is largely stream oriented in the fossil record that is water catastropheism, and yet the world denies a worldwide biblical flood. If you take the Cretaceous layer for example, this is a universal layer stretching from continent to continent.

Dr. Darwin Chamberlain

Durban, South Africa:

In Durban, Professor Veith was holding a short series of lectures to over a thousand people in September when suddenly, the queen of the Zulus arrived with all her bodyguards - "Her Royal Highness Queen Mantfombi". She was fascinated with The New World Order and Mysteries of the Sun - the newest lecture in Professor Veith’s series. After hearing the lectures, she stated that everyone must know about this, and immediately wanted the videos. Now this information is going into the highest circles of government. She is also the daughter of the king of Swaziland, so the Bible is right when it says that kings will come to the brightness of your dawning. (Isaiah 60:3) We don’t know the extent of our message - it is mind-blowing! I don’t know how long we will be able to preach this message.

Sacramento, California:

On September 15 and 16, 2000 Professor Veith held a well-attended evolution - creation series at Doug Batchelor’s church, Sacramento Central SDA for the public. It is this church where Amazing Facts is centered. We thank Sacramento Central and Doug Batchelor for their gracious hospitality.

Masons. However it did get everyone’s attention and increased their awareness into something that for many has never crossed their mind before.

The Diet and Health sessions Sabbath and Sunday after- noon, though less well attended I believe actually had some of the most immediate and significant impact on SDA members. I have had many positive comments from some of my meat-eating friends. Three have specifically told me that they have not eaten meat since and have decided to become vegan vegetarians. Some have started rereading E. G White’s Counsels on Diet and Health. This is certainly a boost for which I am sure God is well pleased.

Thank you again for sharing Dr. Veith, and thank you to Dr. Veith for his dedication, many hours of hard work in preparation and presentation. Thank you to his family for sharing him. We are praying for Dr. Veith and his family that God will guide in his future and continue to watch over and protect them. We look forward to another opportunity to present this message, especially when we can make an appeal to the University Students and broader community!

continent of chalk deposits. Chalk is made up of shells of algae. That means the whole world must have been covered in water, if there is a universal continuous chalk layer. Yet the world denies a universal coverage of water. If you take a look at the layering in the geological column - the world is not flat - you have ravines and canyons. Yet the geological column is absolutely flat sheets. The only way you can get that is through catastrophism - underwater mud flows. The Bible is the book that claims there was a universal catastrophe in the form of a Biblical flood. All the evidence points to that, and yet nobody wants to believe it. Isn't that strange?

Has an Armageddon been predicted? Will people be able to know before it happens or will people only know afterward that it was the right date?

Yes, armageddon is the coming of Christ. That is a great battle - confederacies of the world aligned against the simple, heart-searching truths of the Bible. The Bible is not about confederacies. It is about the individual heart. God will judge every person according to His individual perception and activities in this world. It is the great final conflict between good and evil, and the Bible says Christ is the victor in this conflict. Just before Christ's second coming, during the sixth plague, Christ's enemies ally themselves together against God and His people. Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, so that the way of the kings from the east might be prepared. And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs coming out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are spirits of devils, performing signs, which go out to the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. Revelation 16:12-14

This river fed Babylon in ancient times and represents the multitudes that support end-time Babylon, Revelation 17:15. The erosion of the support base for Babylon spurns the demonic powers controlling this truce in an attempt to deceive the world into giving their political powers and world power to earth to battle against God. As it is impossible to attack God directly, this can only be achieved by attacking His elect, and involves the issuing of the death decree against those who refuse to accept the mark of this beast. The final act of defiance by the apostate end-time religious-political unity of nations is the signal for God to act.

"The way of the kings from the east" is prepared.

The kings from the east are not worldly powers, as these have all formed an alliance with the beast. Rather these kings represent Christ and His angels coming to deliver the saints.

Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings?

he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow. Isaiah 41:2

Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east. And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east and his voice was like a noise of many waters; and the earth shook with His glory. Ezekiel 43:1-2

The saints have no power against the confederacy of the world. It is only Christ Who can deliver them, and He fights this pre-millennial war called Armageddon on their behalf. The word "Armageddon" appears only once in the Bible, and is a composite translation from the Hebrew. The Greek word "Harmageddon" means "mountain of Megiddo". It was at Megiddo that God intervened on behalf of the Israelis and destroyed the armies of the Canaanites. Judges 5:19

The battle is not fought under the sixth plague (the way is only prepared), but it is fought under the seventh plague.

And he gathered them together into the place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon. And the seventh angel poured out his vial upon the air, and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" And there were voices and thunders and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth so mightily an earthquake and so great. Now the great city was divided into three parts, the cities of the nations fell; and Great Babylon came to memory before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath. Then every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent. And men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for the plague was exceedingly great. Revelation 16:20

The earth's confederacy is destroyed by the earthquake, the hall, and the brightness of His Holiness. Job 38:22,23

Behold, the Lord makes the earth empty and makes it waste, tosses its surface and scattering abroad its inhabitants. And it shall be as with the people, or with the priest, as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the creditor, so with the debtor. The land shall be entirely emptied and utterly plundered, for the Lord has spoken this word. The earth mourns and fades away, the world languishes and fades away; the haughty people of the earth languish. The earth also is defiled under its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant. Isaiah 24:1-5 NKJV

The Lord promises deliverance: And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who sits on the horse and against His army. Then the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who worked signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast and those who worshipped his image. These two were cast alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone. And the rest were killed with the sword which proceeded from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse. And all the birds were filled with their flesh. Revelation 19:19-21 NKJV

In that day shall it be said to Jerusalem: 'Do not fear; Zion, let not your hands be weak. The Lord your God is with you midst; the Mighty One, will save. He will rejoice over you with gladness, He will quiet you with His love, He will rejoice over you with singing.' Zephaniah 3:16-17 NKJV

This deliverance takes place when the commencement of the seventh plagues when the loud voice is heard. (1 Thessalonians 4:16)

The Lord will cause His glorious voice to be heard, and show the descent of His arm, with the indignation of His anger and the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, tempest, and hailstones. For through the voice of the Lord, Assyria will be beaten down, as He strikes with the rod. And in every place where the staff of punishment passes, which the Lord lays on him, it will be with tortures and haarch. And in battles of brandishing He will fight with it. Isaiah 30:30-32 NKJV

At this time the dead rise (Isaiah 26:19) and the righteous living are translated. For more information on this topic, please see the video: Millennium of Peace.

How come God created Muslims, Buddhists, Agnostics, Atheists, Zoroaster people, and all the rest of it? How come some of us get the benefit of Jesus' message and others not?

Did God create that or did man create that? What is divine revelation and where do you find it? Is it as the world believes today, there is one God and all religions basically serve the same God, or is the religion of the Bible something set apart from other religions. The general conception today is to throw everything into one pot. But you cannot serve a God who says "salvation by works" and serve Him as the same God that says "salvation by faith". And allot of the religions of the world are based on "salvation by works". You work yourself up to a higher level. If you take Eastern religions as an example, if you don't manage to do it quite right in this life, you have another chance in the next life, and eventually through reincarnation you reach the higher plane. By the Biblical account, salvation is outside oneself. It is a free gift. It is something that God gives you in Jesus Christ. He is the one who saves you. Are all these in the same pot? Yes or no? The original religion, according to the Genesis account was also based on salvation in or on the lamb. When Adam and Eve sinned, a lamb was slaughtered, pointing ahead to the coming Saviour, "Salvation outside yourself". People don't want to readily accept a free gift because we are all works based. It's our nature to want to do things ourselves. That's when the problem comes in - when you start making your own form or your own concept. "No, I can do it myself!", Cain said, "Why should I bring a lamb? Can't I bring the produce, the work of my own hands (salvation by works)" and God says "No. You don't have life in yourself. You must receive it as a gift." So salvation lies in the Lamb.

Today we basically have two religions. The one is a huge variety of religions all professing salvation by works. And then you have the Biblical base which has salvation by faith.

To compose our characters is our duty, not to compose books, and to win not battles and provinces, but order and tranquillity in our conduct. Our great glorious masterpiece is to live appropriately. All our things ruling, hoarding, building, are only little appendages and props, at most.
Warm tortillas in microwave or steam them in a double boiler. Fill them with scramble and place in a baking dish folded seam side up. Pouring the enchilada sauce over them will help keep the folded seam closed.

Enchilada Sauce: Take tomato sauce and mix in remaining ingredients (salt, garlic, onion, etc.) Pour sauce in 2 inch strips over enchiladas; cover and bake in oven for 15 to 20 minutes at 350°C. Optional: After you take it out of oven just before you serve, sprinkle with Benton Sisters White Jack Cheese.

White Jack Cheese

- ¾ c cashews
- 2 Tbsp sesame seeds
- 3 Tbsp food yeast flakes
- 1 ¼ tsp salt
- 1 tsp onion powder
- 1 tsp garlic powder
- ¼ tsp dill weed
- ¼ c lemon juice
- 4 Tbsp Emes Kosher-Jel
- 1 c boiling water

Blend all ingredients with boiling water.

Flour Tortillas

Scrambler: Into blender, whiz 1 cup cashews with 1½ cups water. Add next 4 ingredients; whiz till smooth. Add more of the water if needed. Set aside. Into skillet, mash or dice tofu that has been frozen, thawed, and pressed to drain all the water out. Add the next three ingredients to tofu in skillet and the rest of the water. Pour blender mixture into skillet and cook with tofu until thick. When scrambler is through cooking, add bell peppers.
