OUR VISION

Our Vision is for Amazing Discoveries™ to be seen as a primary source of information for solid end-time truth and the revealing of deceptions—a resource where people can come with questions and where they can access truth.

Our slogan expresses this vision:

EXPOSING DECEPTIONS RESTORING THE TRUTH

Exposing Deceptions

Error is like leaven, of which we read "A LITTLE LEAVEN LEAVENETH THE WHOLE LUMP". Truth mixed with error is equivalent to all error, except that it is more innocent looking and, therefore, more dangerous. God hates such a mixture! Any error, or any truth-and-error mixture, calls for definite exposure and repudiation. To condone such is to be unfaithful to God and His Word and treacherous to imperiled souls for whom Christ died. -H. A. Ironside

Restoring the Truth

There is to be no undermining of the fundamental truths that the Lord has submitted by many miraculous evidences. A voice is to be heard in clear affirmation of the truth, in contradiction to the skepticism and fallacies that have been coming in from the enemy of truth. -This Day with God

NEW RECORDINGS 2014

This year our filming crew was busier than ever! We had many new and returning speakers come to lecture in our studio about current event issues. Our video editing team had a challenging job of processing hours and hours of footage to create many new DVD series and singles.

IMPACT

Thank you for your ministry. I have been watching for 2 years now and I have grown and learned more than in the past 20 years. I appreciate listening to lectures and sermons that are honest about the Bible and don't try just 'serve ice cream' for every sermon. I believe in grace, but every sermon can't just be grace, grace, grace and never to move on from there. I am saddened that many people are going to be very surprised and very angry when this world comes to a close. I tell many people about this channel and especially about Walter Veith. So please, keep putting it out there and proclaiming the truth.

*Blessings,
Diane*

Emailed May 18, 2014

My story in short: a few years ago I came across WhiteHorse media resource and they made a huge impression on me especially because I am very interested in biblical prophecy > which is either never taught in evangelical circles and when it is > it has so many inconsistencies in it. In the SDA doctrine I found CONSISTENCY which is a big deal to me.

Last month I came across Walter's series. Again I found the same CONSISTENCY and I went into more details than before. I listened to all the videos on this series.

Where am I right now?: I am fully convinced about the Sabbath. On April 2nd I made a commitment to do my best to keep the Sabbath Holy. Last Saturday I attend the local SDA congregation (of around 25 people). The following day I went to my church as usual. Thankfully my job allows me to do this.

Due to my family and church setting I will move very prayerfully and slowly. I must stay close enough in order to help them. My people (the evangelicals) need help. They are not listening to those who have the truth because they are too busy. I have spent well over 100 hours listening to Walter's materials. Few people have the time or dedication to do this. Those of us who find the truth must pray about the next move. If I simply walk away from my people I will never be able to help any. If I join the local SDA church many of my people will simply see me as having defected and will not give the time to hear me out or personally investigate the truth. I must do my best to help them. I am fully aware of the truth, and when the day comes to declare my stand I will not hesitate- no matter the price I will have to pay then. For now I will do my best to sow the seed of truth in my own garden. THAT IS MY STAND until the Lord tells me different.

That is why I want to share these resources on my website.

I know I told you more than you asked but thanks for listening.

*God bless you
M.K.*

TESTIMONY

Dear Amazing Discoveries Editor,

This is a letter of deep gratitude to you and the entire team that works so hard to earnestly present the three angels messages to the world. You have been an answer to prayer some 36 years in the making. If you will permit me I would like to give my testimony as briefly as I can to show how our loving Savior has brought your ministry to my life.

My name is B____, I am 36 years old and I live in [city], [state]. I was born to loving parents. My mother was raised a Seventh Day Adventist, my father was not. Around the age of 3, my parents divorced over being unequally yoked. My father went on to the New Age Movement and is a well known UFO illustrator, having had his art featured around the world. My mother was left a single parent, a registered nurse in working Cardiac-ICU at the hospital in [city]. She raised me to be a Seventh Day Adventist including sending me to the local SDA elementary school, Adventist Academy, and we attended the local church. I was involved in Pathfinders and even had my non-SDA cousin join as well.

My mother would play hymns on the piano while I would sing along to welcome in the Sabbath and we had a wonderful bond over these beautiful weekly occasions. As I grew up, I got baptized at the age of 10 and even taught Sabbath School to the younger grades. It was something of a novelty to have someone so young help out, the children seemed to really enjoy it.

When the Celebration movement came to the local Church the Pastor told the congregation that if we did not enjoy it to get out. So my mother had our membership transferred to another church. I couldn't believe that a pastor could be so divisive.

As time went on I found myself struggling with SDA doctrine versus the "reality" of what it is to be an SDA. I found myself in a constant struggle to "just get along". I quit participating in Sabbath School and eventually stopped going to church all together. My mother was adamant that I remain in SDA education and I attended Adventist Academy until midway through 10th grade when I went to another Adventist school in [city]. Boarding school was by no means a comfort for my struggle. I found the school to be dogmatic and the some of the faculty to be less than Christian much less to say Adventist.

As I was attending school there the Pastor was brought up on charges of statutory rape of one of my classmates. He was convicted yet the school and the conference took no serious action against him and for a time he and his wife were still living on campus in faculty housing. Some of the male students visited him there and assaulted him. I am not saying what they did was right but there was a tremendous sense of dissatisfaction with how the church seemed to regard this rape as a "light" thing. This pastor was the second in a row at the school to be charged with this type of behavior.

He and I had debated in our Bible class previous to this about whether or not Ellen G. White said to wear a wedding ring. I could quote scripture and Ellen White at the drop of a hat and I knew she had said it was not imperative to wear one. The pastor however said that I was wrong and that she made no reference at all to wedding rings. In fact, if I brought him this "quote" he would give me 100 points extra credit. So, happily, I went to the campus library found the quote and presented it the next day in class. He asked me to stay after and when I did he refused to give any public acknowledgment that the quote did exist and refused my extra credit.

My dissatisfaction with Adventism grew, I thought that if no one who says they are an Adventist including pastors really believed any of this stuff then why should I? As far as I could see there were no angels walking the pathways of this Adventist school and more and more this all seemed to be a ritualistic list of "can't do's". I fell into a horrible depression my Junior year of school and was suicidal. I became violent and aggressive towards faculty and was asked to leave school.

My mother had started dating again and met a man named M____ who was a practicing Catholic. I found this to be so strange from a woman who was divorced over being unequally yoked. He seemed to try to press my buttons when she wasn't around and he knew a lot about "conspiracy theory". One day he presented me a newspaper clipping of him as a younger man standing beside Fidel Castro after just taking Havana. I didn't know what to say, he told me he was German and at the age of 8 he served in the Third Reich. At the end of World War II his family left Germany for South America where his elderly mother still runs a coffee plantation. He went on to tell me he was a mercenary and worked for hire killing people. He told me he had operated in Guatemala and in Africa. His previous two wives and children were dead of various diseases, so he claimed. I always had horrible feelings around him, he seemed to have an air of distrust. I wanted to get away from him and couldn't seem to get my mother to realize he was not what he seemed to be.

Between the experience at boarding school and now home life I felt the need to talk to someone professionally. I had a wonderful Christian counselor who really listened to my concerns. She was a true blessing from the Lord.

After a few weeks time I was allowed back to the Adventist school and with the help of my counselor, her spiritual and dietary advice, I graduated the next year. I still had tremendous unresolved issues with Adventism and Adventists which were about to come to a head.

The following year my girlfriend at the time and I decided attend an Adventist College. I had been there before as a child, my Aunt and her family lived near there. She worked at the hospital, and I could remember walking through Elmsbaven when we visited. The Adventist College had a feeling of newness and of tremendous potential and I felt like life could only get better from here. The entire time at the school I had all but rejected my personal relationship with Christ. I could not see Him through the fog of discontentment and I was being swept under the waves of doubt. The Adventists school however crushed what little bold of Him I had. My girlfriend and I had split up. I had lost my attention on why I was there and my grades began to suffer.

My mother developed cancer and told me she could not afford to help me with my $17,000 tuition or my $1000 a quarter book fees. When I went to the financial aid counselor I was told to just put in on my mother's credit card... I exploded, telling her "After all the money my mother has spent into this Church, putting me through SDA education as early as possible and now comes my turn to need help and all you can say is put it on her credit card?"

The next Sabbath I went to church on campus, the 3ABN network was there because the General Conference President was visiting. I was told I could not sit in the pews because it looked bad on TV somehow and that I could only sit in the balcony. I felt like, not only am I not worthy of sitting in the church I am paying for, but this church was turning its back on me, and now I had to sit in third class seating because I didn't look right. I had had it, as I sat in the balcony with TV cameras and wires running here and there I realized it was all a sham. ALL OF IT was a show, the last thing I ever heard in that church was the President of the Adventist College saying "Send a generous check to the school". I walked out and did not set foot in an Adventist institution again for 13 years.

My mother passed away in December of 2001, I have never felt such a tremendous loss. I have never had contact with M___ since.

I found my father and readily absorbed what he had to share, Adventism to me was a joke. To me it was no candle stick, it was an elitist club of money and ritual. It had no need of me and I had no need of it and of God for that matter. I threw the baby out with the bath water. I felt free, I felt this lie of Sabbath keeping and prophecies and last day truth was all a sham.

But God was not done with me. Jesus our loving Shepherd was on His way to find this lost sheep and He would follow me no matter how far I ran.

I did want to know the truth, whatever that was, and I was determined to find it. Through my father I met psychics, had UFO encounters, and witnessed a channeler. I had studied every conspiracy theory, every UFO story, every photo I could get my hands on. I have read the full text of the Protocols of Zion, I knew it all. These people I had surrounded myself with were all in their own way searching for truth.

The surprising truth was that more people on the outside of Adventism sounded like people should sound inside Adventism. People around me now, were saying things like "the big bang pointed to a form of intelligent design", and that there was evidence in the world showing a massive worldwide conspiracy that was behind every major war, that when Presidents or world leaders did not follow this agenda they were killed, that whatever or whoever was behind these things lived a much longer life span than man, and that this world is on the verge of a New World Order. I could see Ellen White coming into focus but I was not ready yet, the Lord had more for me to learn.

I had purchased a home with my girlfriend and we were working hard to make a life but I was terribly unsatisfied. We moved to [city] to get away from her parents whom I felt were the reason for my dissatisfaction. I moved to [state] after my 10 year reunion at my old school. I met up with old friends there who seemed much happier than I was. They had attended the SDA college in [city] and had bought homes there so I figured it would be a good place to start over again.

I had all this knowledge of various subjects but it never filled the gap in my life. Before long I realized this new place did not hold the answers I was looking for, in fact no earthly place could. Just a year and a half after moving there, with a good paying job and a custom built home I was stricken with a very rare disease called "reactive arthritis". I was on a week vacation visiting my father in [city] when it happened. Over night both my knees swelled to the size of watermelons and I had to go to the ER to have fluid drained from them. I didn't know what to do, my girlfriend had flown to [city] while I had driven. I drove because I couldn't get the same day off to join her flight. She refused to drive me back to [state] so I spent a week on her parents couch hoping the pain and swelling would subside. Eventually I bit my lip and drove back in agony. I spent the next few months in a wheelchair and was miserable. I couldn't control the inflammation or the pain. My girlfriend and I had been having trouble and it all came to a head. She assaulted me in our house as my friends were trying to help me move out.

I moved back to [city] and stayed with my father and elderly grandmother; I could hardly walk and I was determined to get better and put the past behind me, for sure this time. I had discovered in [state] the "Law of Attraction" and began practicing it. For the first time in my life I actually felt like I did find "The Secret". I felt empowered and that I could do anything and that the universe would take care of me. I spent time teaching others and sharing with them how to improve their lives. I began getting better, I could walk unassisted and began hiking. I felt invincible.

Although I had rejected most of what I had learned as a child, many current events seemed to bring back prophecies that I had heard as a child. False Christs, doctrines of devils, wars and rumors of wars, the end is coming like a thief in the night, all this began racing through my mind.

One day I was researching The Secret and found a link to one of the books The Secret is based on. It told of meditations and sitting still blocking all thought for 45 minutes. I readily adopted this practice. But while I was doing it I began to feel like I was in some kind of ritual. The uneasy feeling caused me to stop these meditations and my faith in The Secret began to waiver.

There seemed to be a factor that The Secret did not take into account, that there was some kind of "interference" with this law of attraction and that ritual seemed to cure it. I was disgusted with the thought of ritual from my previous experience with Adventism, and would certainly not participate in some mind numbing ritual Bible based or not.

Disappointed yet again I would sit and think about all these events in my life. I spent hours and hours contemplating the course I was on and how if there was no truth to Adventism why is so much in the world mirroring what I was taught. Why do people who have never heard of Adventism sound like they have been taught it their whole lives? I began to ask the question, if Adventism is the watchman at the gate then there must be someone, somewhere in the church that knows about these things? I would not take "playing church" as the answer. There must be intelligence in this faith or its worthless as all the others.

I had an old copy of the Great Controversy that managed to stay with me in all my travels even though I never read it. One night before my wife and I got together I picked it up and read the last 4 chapters. I knew then that God was with the truth and that Adventism was more than hollow Saturday rituals and that this search for truth was leading me back, not to empty rituals but to Friday night piano hymns and the love of a caring follower of the truth.

I decided to pray, and ask God for the love of a caring woman to help me, because I am no good on my own. I met my now wife during this questioning phase of my life. She went through a horrible time in order to be with me. She was assaulted as well. She had to separate from her family in a very traumatic way. Two weeks after we were married we sold everything we had and moved to a place we had never seen before and where did not know a soul. This is where we live now. The Lord lead me to my wife, and one year after moving to [state] we were baptized in the local SDA church.

Before we were baptized we met an elder here who was just as sick of "playing church" as I was. He welcomed us into his home on Sabbath afternoons and would show us Walter Veith's Total Onslaught series. I had never heard an Adventist talk like that before, that instead of glossing over the events of history, could actually put them into Biblical perspective with the Spirit of Prophecy.

Sister White tells us that in heaven people will come up to us and thank us for witnessing to them and that we won't know the impact we have had until we get there. I don't want to wait, I would like to thank Amazing Discoveries, and Walter Veith for their efforts. Truly the Holy Spirit is guiding in this work to be the Shepherd's rod, and help retrieve a lost sheep like me.

There is so much more I could add, including miracles of all kinds but then this letter would turn into a book. Thank you for your attention.

May the blessings of the Lord be with each individual who makes your ministry possible. May the Lord use these humble instruments to bring more into the fold. May this work continue with the Lord's blessing until we all walk on streets of gold, I ask this in Jesus name, Amen.

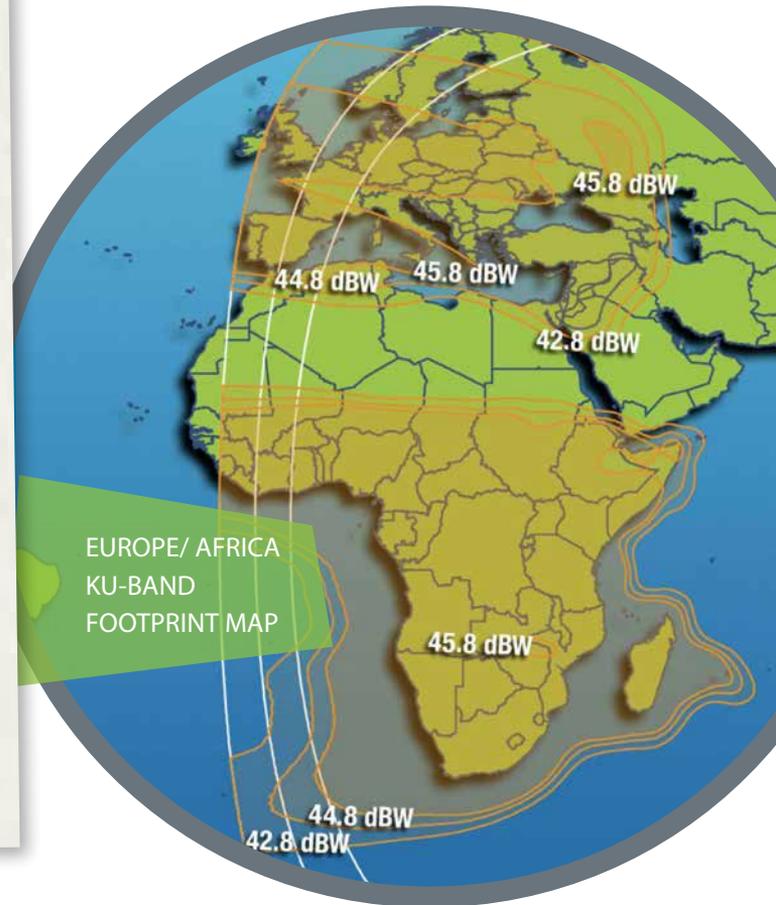

Your brother in Christ,

B.

I almost gave up on the SDA church until I found Amazing Discoveries on Glorystar. Thank you for preaching and teaching the truth. - A.M.

GREETINGS!

I became aware of A.D. via the Total Onslaught videos. I am eternally grateful for the lectures of Prof Walter Veith. I can now research all those questions in life through these exposés. I always wanted to know where Free Masons originated, how to interpret the French Revolution and specifically why through all these centuries the Pope and his priests wear their vestments/headgears, rituals etc.

A.D. O-P-E-N-E-D my understanding about a lot of subjects hence the reasons I support your ministry and mission statement. I know you are on the right track when you brought to the platform the likes of Hal Mayer (of Keep the Faith Ministry). I have in a short period of time through Pr. Veith and Pstr. Mayer have exposed to a WEALTH of information that would have required me a lifetime to acquire. I call these brethren the HIGH CALIBER NUCLEAR WEAPONS OF GOD.

I thoroughly enjoyed your other staff and guest speakers. All in all I wonder when my SDA Church was ever going to send this information my way via the pulpit. Your ministry is important to "Rekindle the Faith of the People of God" that is perishing for lack of information via the pulpit.

I consider A.D. to be my University where I enrolled in classes of Archeology with Dr. Duplessis, Science, Theology, Health, World & Church History with Prof Veith.

I share this wealth of information with my contacts and encourage them to buy videos or get the satellite system or at least watch the videos on YouTube.

Thanks,

L.A.

ENMITY

A DOCUMENTARY SERIES

Filming for Enmity continued in 2014 with more recordings of Joel Kratzke and Edwin deKock. This is a huge undertaking with hours of work needed on writing the 15 scripts, gathering graphics, consolidating ideas, collecting footage, and much more. Work on the scripts has been in progress for already 3 years. Every quote and sentence in the series is checked and referenced.

Aimed at Protestants of other denominations, we pray that this documentary series will be an entering wedge to get busy people aged 25-45 to become interested in Bible prophecy and to understand the great controversy theme.

Please continue to pray for this series and the dedicated team working on it day to day.

ACROSS CONTINENTS...

Hi Friends,

I pray all is well with you and the AD team. Silvia and I just got back from our yearly "Living Water" summer camp. This year we had a special couple attend the camp meeting and I just need to shortly share their story with you.

About a year ago they came across Amazing Discoveries on the internet and started watching it a lot. They had no strong Christian background but felt that the messages were very relevant and answering lots of questions they had. They could not get enough of the amazing truths they were learning from Walter Veith and other speakers on the channel. One day they quit all their cigarettes and meat, deciding to live more healthy. They also decided to start keeping the Sabbath. By this time they had never entered a foot into an Adventist church. The man had long hair down to his waist but cut it the day before they went to church. To make a long story short the church in Holland was quite different than what they were exposed to through Amazing Discoveries, but they see it as a mission to be a light to the people though they are so young in the faith. Last April they got baptized! They told me that they have watched all my sermons on AD. While searching for more they came across our Living Water website where they learned about our summer camp. And so they came....

They shared their testimony on one of the evenings at the camp. People loved it! AD is bringing the truth into the homes of people, even in secular Holland! It makes me just wonder how many more people there are out there like this couple. Eternity will tell. Till then let us continue to beam the light across the globe. Our prayers are with you!

OUR MISSION

Amazing Discoveries™ is a front-line evangelistic ministry that uses innovative methods to reach people for the Lord Jesus Christ by spreading the Gospel, exposing deceptions, and presenting new perspectives in science, religion, media, health, and world events. Our message is delivered through seminars and the use of print and electronic media, including radio, television, and sales of DVDs.

Our Mission Comes from a Biblical Foundation:

And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free (John 8:32).

And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them. For it is shameful even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. But all things that are exposed are made manifest by the light... See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil (Ephesians 5:11-13, 15, 16 NKJV).

It is a light thing that thou shouldst be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth (Isaiah 49:6).

Exposing Deceptions. Restoring the Truth.
